

IVA Membership Form

The International Volunteerism Association (IVA) is a not-for-profit organisation registered as a society with the Registry of Societies in Singapore.

It provides a platform for International Volunteer (IV) practitioners in Singapore to share with each other, their best practices, experiences, resources and information. This will benefit and help other volunteers before they embark on International Volunteer missions and trips.

IVA also promotes best practices and minimum standards for international volunteerism. Its aim is to enable and facilitate Singapore-based volunteer groups to improve their current volunteer standards and assist in their planning and implementation of international expeditions/ trips.

IVA invites you to become a Member. This membership will give you exclusive access to our various talks, events, learning opportunities, training and other related activities in the field of International Volunteerism.
